

'Eliminate Injuries by Creating a Total Safety Culture'

This class will provide an opportunity to examine the safety culture of your workplace, and learn opportunities for improvement. Topics <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Help employees become accountable through developing the values and beliefs that lead to consistent safe behavior• Identify the two major reasons associates don't always follow safety rules and procedures and what to address them.• The two areas to address when improving safety - infrastructure and culture - and, why culture is more important.• The difference between internal and external accountability and how internal accountability is the key to improving safety. Goals <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Learn how safety results come from behavior and behavior comes from values and beliefs, and how to ensure organizational safety beliefs are those required to create a Total Safety Culture• Identify your current safety beliefs and how they impact safety• Describe infrastructure and culture, how each impact safety results, and why culture is more important in improving safety• Identify the three major reasons people work unsafely and how to address each• Gain commitment to safety by using body language, tone of voice, and communicating with others in their own "language"• Describe two change models and use them to gain commitment to safety• Describe the process of creating a Total Safety Culture• Use a specific model to identify and address safety issues and reinforce positive safety habits in the workplace	Instructor Jeff Gossett 2018 dates <ul style="list-style-type: none">• March 21• July 18 Class meets 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Participants are on their own for lunch Fee Members: $255 per person Non-members: $355 per person Location Employers Network office; 1004 South Pine Street, Spartanburg Enroll Call Employers Network: 585-1007 Custom delivery This class can be tailored to meet your company's needs. It can be delivered at your facility, or off-site at our office. Please contact Employers Network for more information. Attendance Registered participants who fail to attend a class ('no-shows') will be charged full class cost. The 'no-show' fee may not be used as a credit for another UEN class, or other type of event or service. A 'late notice' charge (50% of the class fee) will be charged for cancellations made less than 48 hours before the scheduled class starting time. The 'late notice' charge may not be used as a credit for another UEN class, or other type of event or service.
--	--